

Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute of Hotel Management & Catering Technology

PRESS BRIEF ON “MYSTERIES OF KOREAN BAKERY & NEW CONFECTIONERY SEMINAR”

Taking another stride in International Association, Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute of Hotel Management & Catering Technology, organized on 22nd June 2010 in its state of the art Banquet Hall, a workshop unfolding The Mysteries of Korean Bakery and New Confectionery demonstrated by the team of ten bakers including senior faculty of HYEJEON College (South Korea). It is for the first time in India that the professional Bakers including senior faculty of the college displayed their bakery and confectionery skills headed by the key demonstrator Chef Hwang Jung Tea, who had won “The Master Fame” with chocolate and sugar works in the Nationwide SBS TV. This programme was jointly organized by AIB International (USA), HYEJEON College (South Korea) and ASSOCOM-INDIA PVT. LTD. The entire team exhibited their professional skills under the leadership of Professor and Dean Dr. Cho Nam Ji, Academic Affairs HYEJEON College and Prof. Chun Dong Ho, Dept. of Hotel Technology, HYEJEON College.

The entire team demonstrated the art and finer skills of Sugar Art and Craft, Chocolate Confectionery, Fresh Cream Cakes & Puddings, and unmatched finer skills of Marzipan Confectionery. The Korean Bakers used very precision bakery equipment during their demonstrations with the help of which they could transfer their imagination and concept into the final products. Eminent personalities from the Hotel Industry and Hotel Management Institutes attended the Demonstrations and Displays and Immensely applauded the presentations.

To name a few Chef Rakesh Sethi, Ramadda Plaza, New Delhi, Chef Bali OCLD, The Oberois and Mr. Kunal Seth, HOD, Dept. of Hotel Management, Manav Rachna University alongwith others appreciated the efforts made by the organisers in organizing such an event. They reiterated that more of such events should be organized for the benefit of the industry as well as for the student's fraternity. The entire programme was initiated by Mr. Ronojit Kundu, Head of Bakery & Confectionary of the Institute under the leadership of the Principal, Mr. R.K. Bhandari.

Mr. Bhandari in his vote of thanks expressed his gratitude to the team of Korean Professional Bakers and the faculty of the institute of HYEJEON College (South Korea) and ASSOCOM-INDIA PVT. LTD. Both the Institutes alongwith the dignitary of ASSOCOM distributed Certificates of Participation jointly signed by them to the participants.
